

Forensics Study Guide – Chapter 16 & 17

Casts, Impressions, and Tool Marks

1. Study any Quizlets made for chapters 16 & 17.
2. Be able to match types of saws with cut characteristics and teeth-mark patterns.
3. Bite marks provide what type of evidence?
4. Describe the types of tool marks.
5. Describe the ways to make latent prints visible.
6. Identify different types of casting materials.
7. What are the types of tires marks and what can crime scene analysts learn from them?
8. What can crime scene analysts learn about a person from shoe impressions?
9. What is the minimum length needed for tire identification?
10. Know/Apply the following terms:
  - ABFO
  - Casting
  - Circumstantial evidence
  - Class evidence
  - Individual evidence
  - Latent
  - Oblique lighting
  - Patent
  - Plastic
  - Serial number
  - Tool mark
  - Track width
  - Turning diameter